

Women as Social Warriors

Stigmas of Sexuality

Grassroots

Latina organizers, from both sides of the US-Mexico border, are currently challenging stigmas around sexual identities, race and ethnicity, and sexually-transmitted diseases.

Come hear their voices.

✧

Panel

Discussion

Performance Art

✧

Free Food

Fair Trade Crafts

Tabling by Community Orgs.

6:00–9:00 PM

Thursday, January 15, 2004

College Nine/Ten Multipurpose Room, UCSC

Speakers include:

Juana Guzmán: co-founder/co-publisher of Les Voz magazine and co-organizer of the 1st Lesbian March in Latin America held in March 2003. Currently leads the Women's Delegation for the Mexican government.

Carla Trujillo: Editor of Chicana Lesbians: The Girls Our Mothers Warned Us About, author of What Night Brings

Mónica Morales, Santa Cruz AIDS Project and local community activist

Gigi Otálvaro-Hormillosa, a popular San Francisco-based performance artist

Cosponsored by: Comercio Justo, GIIP's Women's Empowerment Group, College Nine/Ten Co-curricular Programs, Women's Center, Center for Justice, Tolerance, and Community, GLBTI Resource Center, and Chicano/Latino Research Center, with support from many other campus departments and organizations.

For more information or disability related needs, call 831-459-5743.