

Center for Justice, Tolerance
& Community
University of California
Santa Cruz

Santa Cruz Criminal Defense Bar

Invite you to join us for a discussion on

Race, Gender, and Class Issues in the Criminal Justice System

Gang issues, gang injunctions, classifications, incarceration rates, the psychological affects of security housing units, rates of recidivism & women in prison

Hosted by:

Ben Rice

Santa Cruz Criminal Defense Attorney

Featuring:

Connie Rice

Co-founder of The Advocacy Project
& Los Angeles Defense Attorney

Rice is a co-founder of The Advancement Project, a public policy and legal action group that supports organizations working to end community problems and address racial, class and other barriers to opportunity. As a litigator, Rice has filed class action civil rights cases redressing police misconduct, race and sex discrimination and unfair public policy in transportation probation and public housing. Rice has led multi-racial coalitions of lawyers and clients to win more than $4 billion worth of injunctive relief and damages.

Craig Haney

Professor of Psychology, UCSC

Haney examines the psychological effects of solitary confinement in prisons.

Saturday, March 29th, 10am-3pm

at the UCSC Inn, 370 Ocean Street in Santa Cruz

Suggested Donation: $20

 Lunch provided

Sponsored by:

Santa Cruz Barrios Unidos,

The Center for Justice, Tolerance, and Community and
Santa Cruz Criminal Defense Bar

For Information Call Barrios Unidos at: 831-457-8208