Featuring independent films that address the GLBT experience in Mexico, the struggle for women's human rights, and the possibilities of cross-border organizing.

With special guests Juana Guzmán and Velia García, from the Mexico City-based lesbian human rights organization, LeS VOZ. Come hear the testimonios of activists who are shaping the lesbian feminist movement in Mexico by voicing their experiences, building community, and organizing the first Lesbian March of Latin America.

This event is sponsored by Cabrillo College Watsonville Center, Commission for the Prevention of Violence Against Women, Defensa de Mujeres/Women's Crisis Support Center, the Diversity Center, Familia Center, Grupo Libertad de Expresión/Salud Para La Gente, LeS VOZ, Lionel Cantú GLBTI Center, LyLyA/YWCA, Queer Latina Network, Triangle Speakers, and UCSC Rape Prevention Education. Major funding provided by the Center for Justice, Tolerance, and Community and its Social Change Across Borders Project.
