

November 9, 2004

6-9 p.m.

UC Santa Cruz

Colleges 9 & 10 Multipurpose Room

---

The Face of the New Labor Movement

Women As Social Warriors III

Mujeres en Marcha

These are the voices of women carving out their place in the labor movement and reenergizing it as they: demand fair working conditions at UCSC, engage in the statewide struggle for decent healthcare benefits, and “feminize” the leadership of the Latin American banana worker unions.

With special guests:

Iris Munguia, the first Secretary of Women for both the Coalition of Honduran Banana Unions (COSIBAH) and the Coalition of Latin American Banana Unions (COLSIBA)

Cristina Vazquez, Western States Regional Joint Board, Regional Manager of UNITE-HERE

Maria Elena Alcantar, Local #3299 AFSCME

Maria Padilla, Local #3299 AFSCME

Panel Discussion
Free Homemade Tamales and Cafe
Fair Trade Crafts
Music and Spoken Word

Event sponsored by the Center for Justice, Tolerance, and Community.

For more information or disability related needs, call 831-459-5743